

Knowing that Sinclair contributes to the Bush campaign, I can't help but view a documentary about John Kerry lowering the morale of POWs to be blatantly partisan and dishonest. Besides, it's not as if he was the only one to protest the war.

Please ask the Sinclair corporation to not air Stolen Honor, or if they do, air a pro-Kerry film such as 'Going Upriver' as a counterpoint. Thank you.